Official POLO Rome channels and transactions

Please be guided to address all verification requests and other POLO transactions only to the appropriate service e-mail address of POLO Rome (services@polorome.com). Any communication coming from other medium is not official and may contain misrepresented information.

Furthermore, please be guided that POLO Rome is only authorized to charge verification fees as listed in the official schedule of fees (<https://polorome.freshdesk.com/support/solutions/articles/31000148790-schedule-of-verification-fees>), and any bank transfers only be made to the official POLO bank account as provided and accompanied by an official receipt. Should there be any other charges or additional payments made in facilitation of any POLO transaction, it should be reported to the Labor Attaché as they are deemed unofficial and may be illegal under the laws of the Philippines.
